

Southeastern Grasslands Initiative 24-state focal region

SGI's 24-state focal area is defined by a combination of ecoregional boundaries and the boundary of the southern glacial maximum (Pleistocene glaciations), south of which plant diversity has evolved to a high degree.

- | | |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| Texas | Georgia (entire) |
| Louisiana (entire) | South Carolina (entire) |
| Arkansas (entire) | North Carolina (entire) |
| Oklahoma | Virginia (entire) |
| Missouri | Maryland (entire) |
| Illinois (small portion) | Pennsylvania |
| Indiana (small portion) | Delaware (entire) |
| Kansas (small portion) | New Jersey |
| Kentucky (entire) | New York (small portion) |
| Tennessee (entire) | West Virginia (entire) |
| Mississippi (entire) | Ohio |
| Alabama (entire) | |
| Florida (entire) | |

